(e) the time on an average by which a person registered with the employment exchange is likely to get a job?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE (INDEPENDENT CHARGE) OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI OSCAR FERNANDES)

(a & b) State wise number of Employment Exchanges including University Information and Guidance Bureau functioning in the country as on 31st July 2007 and number of job-seekers registered with Employment Exchanges for the last three years are given in Annexure-I.

(c) State-wise placement of persons/youth effected through the Employment Exchanges for the last three years is given in Annexure-II.

(d & e) Employment Exchanges perform the role of a facilitator between the employers and registered job seekers and do not create any job opportunities. The Employment Exchanges, however, make submissions of registered job seekers against the vacancies notified to them by the employers. It is, therefore, not feasible to prescribe time limit for placement of registered job seekers, by the Employment Exchanges.
